Summary of Representation.—In the interest of Sanskrit studies, a graded series of examinations should be prescribed for all the aided Sanskrit Patasalas in the State.

SUBJECT No. 22.

Different grades of examinations in the grant-in-aid Sanskrit Patasalas

Mr. K. T. Seshaiya, Belur Taluk.

DEVELOPMENT—MORAL AND MATERIAL—
(Co-operative Societies).

(Nos. 23 to 26.)

Summary of Representation.—Such of the Co-operative Societies as cause much trouble to borrowers may be abolished.

SUBJECT No. 23.

Abolition of Co-operative Societies which harass borrowers.

Messrs. Channabasappa, Davangere Municipality; D. Basavannappa, Davangere Taluk, and S. Veerabhadrappa, Chitaldrug Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The Co-operative Societies Regulation may be so amended that the amount due to the Societies under decrees against Government servants may be recovered from their pay.

SUBJECT No. 24.

Amendment of the Co-operative Societies Regulation.

Messrs. H. S. Gundappa and Bale Gowda, Kunigal Taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The Civil Courts in the State cannot entertain suits for the recovery of dues to Co-operative Societies. Only the Registrar and the Assistant Registrars of Co-operative Societies have been empowered to decide them. Much delay is experienced in the disposal of such cases by them. The Government may be pleased to confer the jurisdiction over such cases to civil courts also, if the proposal is agreeable to the Co-operative Department.

SUBJECT No. 25.

Giving Civil Courts jurisdiction over cases for recovery of dues to Co-operative Societies.

Mr. S. Krishnaswami Rao, Mysore Taluk.

Summary of Representation. (a) Half the court-fee prescribed for civil plaints is ordered to be levied on Co-operative Society plaints. The co-operative movement has not yet taken deep root in the country. Exemption from payment of stamp duty may be continued some time longer, and if this is not possible, quarter stamp duty may be ordered to be levied.

(b) Half the Court fee is levied, of late, on all suits filed on behalf of Co-operative Societies. This may be abolished for a period of five years, at least, as it would be converting the societies into ordinary banking concerns (where the bankers have free scope to dictate to the parties their own stipulations), but on the other hand the societies are bound by stringent rules.

SUBJECT No. 26.

Remission of Court-fees on Co-operative Society plaints.

Messrs. (a) Anantha-lakshminaranappa, Anantarajappa, and Veerappaji, Tumkur Taluk, and (b) B. N. Raghavayya, Shimoga Town Municipality.
